SIR,

I have the honor to invite your kind attention to Section 6 of the Regulation No. IX of 1894 relating to Government Securities, and to state that no orders of Government have yet been passed under this Section, authorizing any Government Officer of the State, to hold Mysore Government Securities in his official name; but on the analogy of the procedure adopted for Government of India Securities, Mysore Government Promissory Notes belonging to the Muzrai Institutions and to the several Personal Estate and other trust accounts are held in the official name of the Dewan of Mysore.

As this procedure has to be legalised, I request that a Notification of Government authorizing the Dewan of Mysore to hold the promissory notes in his official name may kindly be issued as required in the Regulation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Chakravarti
